“A generation from now we will be the co-op’s leaders, making important decisions that will impact the business we collectively own.

The YC program is a valuable way to learn about the business, while developing friendships with fellow dairy farmers like us.”

— Brad Korver, Alton, Iowa

Eligible members are 18 to 45 years of age and actively involved on an AMPI-member dairy farm.

Complete the membership form on the back and return to your AMPI field representative.

If you’re young, motivated and dairy farming, we’ve got a group for you. The YC Program offers AMPI members 45 years of age and younger the opportunity to develop leadership skills, gain insight about their cooperative and network with fellow dairy farmer-owners their age.
